

Affidavit

State Of Florida, County of _____

_____ being duly sworn according to law, deposes and attests under penalty of perjury to the following: I, _____, of the city/county of _____, State of Florida, being first duly sworn on oath, state that.

1. I am over 18 years of age and competent enough to testify of my own knowledge of the facts stated herein.
2. All the facts stated by me herein are true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge and understanding.
3. Executive Orders, Presidential Directives, Congressional Acts, or Unconstitutional treaties that violate the Constitution do not bind Americans. "The Constitution was made to guard the people against the dangers of good intentions. Good intentions will always be pleaded for every assumption of authority. It is hardly too strong to say that the Constitution was made to guard the people against the dangers of good intentions. There are men in all ages who mean to govern well, but they mean to govern. They promise to be good masters, but they mean to be masters." – Noah Webster

The Supreme Court has repeatedly ruled that Acts of Congress, MUST comply with the Constitution, In - Reid v. Covert, October 1956, 354 U.S. 1, at pg 17.the supreme court held:

"There is nothing in the constitution that says laws enacted (or executive orders written) do not have to comply with the provisions of the Constitution nor is there anything in the debates which accompanied the drafting and ratification which even suggest such a result...

It would be manifestly contrary to the objectives of those who created the Constitution, as well as those who were responsible for the Bill of Rights – let alone alien to our entire constitutional history and tradition – to construe Article VI as permitting the United States to exercise power UNDER an international agreement, without observing constitutional prohibitions. (See Elliot’s Debates 1836 ed. – pgs 500-519).

In effect, such construction permits amendment to that document in a manner not sanctioned by Article V. The prohibitions of the Constitution were designed to apply to all branches of the National Government and they cannot be nullified by the Executive or by the Executive and Senate combined." The Second Amendment says, "The right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed. " Therefore, neither the Congress nor the various State Legislatures have the constitutional right to regulate or infringe on any Americans right to keep and bear arms.
